Terms & Conditions of Order

All orders placed through this web site are specifically subject to Avnet's Standard Terms and Conditions. No change, alteration, deletion or modification of any of these terms and conditions is permitted. No person is authorized to accept, confirm or vary these terms and conditions including all representations and warranties unless they have been posted on this Web site. Orders placed on forms deviating from these terms and conditions will be accepted on the basis that Avnet terms and conditions will govern.

In addition, the following terms and conditions apply to all orders placed through this web site.

Customer Service

Should you need assistance on web quotes, orders, product information or inquiries of any kind, please direct them to our Customer Service organization. Americas at 1-800-408-8353 or Customer.Care@Avnet.com . Asia at +86-755-8378-2464 or CustomerCare.AvnetExpressAsia@Avnet.com . EMEA at +00 800 412 412 11 (+49 (0) 8121 777 200) or CustomerCare@AvnetExpress.eu .

Prices/Quantities

Avnet makes every effort to present current and accurate pricing on its Web site. However, prices are subject to change without notice and quantities may be limited. All orders are subject to current pricing at time of acceptance by Avnet. Prices are for Products only and do not include taxes, impositions and any other charges, fees, shipping charges or duties. Customer is responsible for any additional fees and taxes.

Shipping Charges

Shipping or freight charges and insurance will be paid by the customer. Title and risk of loss pass to customer upon delivery of the Products to the carrier. Shipping or freight charges from Avnet's warehouse are prepaid and added to the invoice, billed collect or billed to a third party. Shipments weighing more than 10 pounds may be subject to additional freight charges. The exact freight amount will be calculated at the time the order is processed and will appear in your shipment notification.

Handling Charge

Avnet does not charge a handling fee for web orders.

Sales Tax

When required by law, Avnet will collect Federal, State and/or Local sale, use, excise and other taxes which apply to a Customer's shipment. These taxes are in addition to the purchase price of the Products. If Hawaii excise taxes are applicable, rates are .05% for wholesale transactions and 4% for retail transactions.

Payment

Avnet offers several convenient payment methods:

US Customers may use MasterCard, VISA, Discover, American Express and open account credit (for qualified institutions and businesses).

International customers see International Orders.

To obtain a credit application for open account credit, contact any sales representative by calling 1-800-408-8353 or faxing your request to 1-800-585-1598. Or you may download a credit application via the Internet. Please allow sufficient time for the credit approval process. To avoid delay on your initial order you may elect an alternative payment method.

Freight Damage

If you receive merchandise that has been damaged in transit, it is important to keep the shipping carton, packing material and part intact. Details of Avnet's product returns policy can be found in Section 5 of Avnet's Standard Terms and Conditions. Please contact an Avnet Customer Service representative immediately to initiate a claim. (See Customer Service)

Return Policy

Avnet accepts merchandise returns subject to the terms outlined in Avnet's Standard Terms and Conditions.

International Orders

In addition to the US and its territories, Avnet accepts international orders. All orders of international origin are exported from the US in accordance with the Export Administration Regulations and other applicable laws and regulations. Diversion contrary to US Law is prohibited. All duties and taxes will be the responsibility of the customer.

In compliance with US export law, Avnet requires necessary export control information from Avnet customers. International customers must provide the information before the products can be exported.

Payment options for International customers: MasterCard, VISA, American Express, Discover as well as open account credit to qualified institutions and businesses. Customer is responsible for duties and taxes.

Export Controls

Customer acknowledges that the export, re-export, or import into any other country of commodities, technical data, or software purchased from Avnet ("Controlled Items") may be subject to the export/import control laws and regulations of the U.S. or other countries, including the Export Administration Regulations ("EAR") issued by the U.S. Department of Treasury, and the International Traffic in Arms Regulations issues by the U.S. Department of State. Customer agrees and undertakes to comply with all applicable export/import control laws and regulations. In particular:

1. Customer certifies that Customer will not directly or indirectly export, re-export, transmit, or cause to be exported, re-exported or transmitted, any Controlled Items to any country, individual, corporations, organization, or entity to which such export, re-export, or transmission is restricted or prohibited, including any country, individual, corporation, organizations, or entity under sanctions or embargoes administered by the U.S. Departments of Treasury or Commerce, or any other applicable government authority.
2. Customer certifies that Customer will use the Controlled Items for civil end-uses only and will not use them in relation to nuclear, biological or chemical weapons or missile systems or the development of any weapons of mass destruction.
3. Customer acknowledges responsibility to obtain any license to export, re-export, import into any other country, or transmit any Controlled Items as may be required under any export/import control laws or regulations. Customer will not export, re-export, import to any other country, or transmit any Controlled Items except in accordance with the terms of the license issued by any applicable government authority.
4. Customer agrees to indemnify Avnet for all liabilities, penalties, losses, damages, costs or expenses that may be imposed on or incurred by Avnet in connection with any violations of U.S. export laws and regulations by Customer.
